Tavarekere Blooms

- JK Tyre company helps rejuvenate the long-neglected Lake
- Hundreds of white lotus blossom in Lake at Chamundi Hill base

Mysuru, Nov. 4 (MTY&BCT)- The picturesque Tavarekere (Lake) in Tavarekatte village at the base of the Chamundi Hill is full to the brim, a year after it was desilted and cleaned. White lotus have again slowly started blooming in the Lake.

Villagers and residents around the area say that Tavarekatte derives its name from the Kannada words for Lotus 'Tavare' and Pond/Tank (Katte).

Thanks to successive summers and the silt deposits in the Lake, it had been neglected and gone bone dry with only a few patches of water that used to go dry as summer approaches. Now the entire 12.5 acres of the Lake is filled with water.

The Lake, located in Kurubarahalli Survey Number 4, coming under Chamundi Hill Gram Panchayat, was desilted and rejuvenated by J.K. Tyre & Industries Limited (Vikrant Tyre Plant, Mysuru) under its Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) funds during financial year 2018-19.

The company spent Rs. 16.5 lakh and about 7 to 8 feet of silt was removed so that the Lake could hold more water. Notably, over Rs.39 crore was spent on various CSR initiatives in Mysuru during 2018-19. Earth movers were used to remove many layers of silt and muck that had deposited over the years.

The rejuvenation project was taken up in association with the District Industries Centre (DIC) and NGO Mysore Resettlement and Development Agency (MYRADA) Kaveri Pradeshika Samsthe (MYKAPS) was the implementing partner.

The Lake is located at the foot of the Chamundi Hill near the entrance arch and it depends on the water that flows from Devikere atop the Hill. Thanks to copious rains this October, the Tavarekere Tank is full to the brim. Though there is no Rajakaluve from the Hill to carry water to from Devikere to Tavarekere, there are many cascading small streams and waterfalls that bring water downstream.

MUDA's Group Housing Project of 2017 awaiting Govt. nod

Mysuru, Nov.4 (RK&DM)- The Mysuru Urban Development Authority's (MUDA) bid to solve the growing land crunch and premium on land value by building Group Housing Projects where there will be more than 2,000 housing clusters has hit a roadblock as the Government is yet to give its approval.

MUDA has so far not ventured into housing projects and had confined itself to plot development and this is the first foray into Group Housing that offers affordable houses. There is a severe crunch of land and all the proposed new layouts including the ambitious Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar Layout, Swarna Jayanti Nagar, Shanthaveri Gopalagowda Layout, R.T. Nagar 2nd Stage and Ballahalli Layout are stuck in a quagmire. Some of these layouts have been planned in late 1990s and MUDA has still not completed land acquisition process. Though it has finished R.T. Nagar 1st Stage, it is stuck in other layouts.

MUDA had prepared a plan in the year 2017 to construct 1,348 houses in the land along Ring Road in Vijayanagar 2nd Stage. This land which is locked between High Tension Road, Ring Road and Seshadripuram College was considered by MUDA as best suited for Group Housing.

The plan involved construction of a fourteen storeyed building of 1,348 houses and was estimated to cost Rs.422 crore. MUDA had reserved Rs.75 crore in its budget for 2017-18.

46,346 applications

The Project had proposed to build 120 one BHK, 1,168 two bedroom houses and 60 three bedroom houses. After preparing the blue print, MUDA called for a demand survey, during which it received a whopping 13,994 applications for single bedroom houses, 25,380 applications for two bedroom houses and 7,022 applications for three bedroom houses from May 2 to May 31, 2017.

Trailing traitors

Pages of the land's long history reveal episodes of trusted persons betraying the trust vested in them by the rulers of their times enabling the unwelcome marauders making inroads into the territory first, conquering next, destroying exquisitely carved sculptures in places of worship and finally setting shop to rule over the locals for long periods. While Afghans came, looted wealth and then left leaving a trail of destruction, Moghuls and British made India's major regions come under their fiefdom in a major way, in the august company of Portuguese (Goa) and French (Pondicherry, now Puducherry) lording over smaller territories. Calling those who betrayed their masters for short-term gain and disrupting life in society as rogue elements would be an under-statement. Even the years preceding the end of colonial rule in India, the sordid drama of betrayal might have witnessed an encore, given the dilly-dallying by some of the rulers of smaller territories but for the monumental achievement of India's iconic Iron Man who wrapped up nearly 560 Kings accede to the Indian Union. The nipping in the bud of the then militant outfit Razakars by Police action was his masterstroke.

The nation badly misses its first Home Minister at present while successive Governments are all at seas in reining in two anti-society and anti-national outfits, namely Naxalites and Maoists, setting off explosives and planting mines making martyrs of the security personnel in well-marked locations, one of them raising its head now and then in one of the districts of Karnataka too.

Some virtually unseen agency is not only training the radicalised youth of a well-marked country to commit assault daringly on well-equipped professionally acting armed forces personnel but also funding the supply of lethal weapons to the misdirected outfits following terrorism as their cult and creed. Not a day is missed by media in all its forms to report events in which the outfits indulge in shoot-out amidst civil society, plant explosives in over-crowded market places of cities and such acts claiming lives of innocent citizens. One gets the gut feeling that the ideologues directing the acts of the nefarious outfits too must be keenly following the media reports glorifying their unlawful conduct as terror and also must be feeling an exalted sense of heroism and victory over the security forces.

The onus of keeping vigil on the rogue elements prowling in busy urban spaces better be owned by all able-bodied people of the land and lend their hand in nipping the undesirable elements in the bud. Futile criticism motivated by the desire to divide the country in our times is their hallmark. Calling them terrorists seems to be a misnomer. They are unarguably the nation's traitors, written with capital 'T'.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Lord Louis Mountbatten was a member of the British royal family. That got him many jobs which he didn't perhaps deserve fully. In the end it also got him blown up when a bomb went off on his boat in 1979. He didn't deserve that either. But he lived a good life. The royal connection also got him many good jobs, including that of Supreme Commander of Allied Forces in the East during World War II. He was just 43. Churchill wasn't keen but eventually went along. He may have wanted to send him very far away. In any case, the Americans were calling the shots by then. Dickie couldn't do much harm. Another job that he wasn't quite suited for was that of the last Viceroy of India. He made a monumental mess. According to one historian, he hurried up the Independence of India because he wanted to get back to London quickly so that he would be in the running for heading all British forces. That haste is what led to the partition mess.

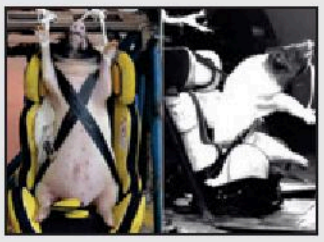
Researchers under fire for using pigs as crash test dummies



Beijing: Chinese researchers have come under fire for using live, immature pigs as test dummies in high-speed crash simulations that killed seven of them immediately.

Animal rights activists around the world accused the researchers of unnecessary cruelty, after it was reported that they had used fifteen live pigs as crash test dummies for a study. The animals were allegedly denied food 24 hours before the gruesome tests, then strapped in for high-speed simulations that caused them various injuries, including bleeding, laceration, fractures, abrasions and internal bruising. Seven of the pigs were killed instantly, while the rest survived for another six hours.

The Chinese scientists insisted that their study had been approved by an ethics committee, and that they had followed US guidelines for the use of laboratory animals. Still, that did little to appease the outraged animal activists who slammed the study as animal cruelty.

Man faces jail for using live cat as weapon

Moscow: A 59-year-old man from Moscow is facing up to five years behind bars for allegedly using a live cat as a weapon against Police.

The suspect, Gennady Shcherbakov, was reportedly sitting at the foot of his apartment building's stairwell after drinking heavily and was causing a ruckus. When Police arrived on the scene and told Shcherbakov to go home, he refused to comply and instead grabbed a nearby cat and shoved it in the face of one of the Police officers. The confused feline allegedly tried clinging to the man's face, scratching him badly.

A year after this incident, authorities have opened a criminal case against Shcherbakov on charges of violence against Police. Shcherbakov already spent the night in jail, but if found guilty he risks spending up to five years in prison.

- The "weapons-grade" Dragon's Breath chili pepper is so hot it's downright deadly. If you ate one, it could potentially cause a type of anaphylactic shock, burning the airways and closing them up. "I've tried it on the tip of my tongue and it just burned and burned," said Mike Smith, the hobby grower who invented the Dragon's Breath along with scientists from Nottingham University. So why make such an impractical pepper? It turns out, the chili was developed to be used in medical treatment as an anaesthetic that can numb the skin.

Plea to clear encroachment by roadside eateries

Sir,

Krishna Vilas Road has been declared as No Hawking Zone by the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) a few years back. But of late several eateries have mushroomed on the road especially in and around Khadri Shamanna Circle making it a nightmare to walk, more so in the evenings.

The shops occupy the entire stretch of the footpath forcing pedestrians to walk on the road, which becomes even more difficult with the haphazard parking of vehicles.

I do not know whether these eateries have obtained license to do business. Recently a new eatery has cropped up just abutting the Sri Venkataramana Swamy Temple.

Though the Traffic Police Station is just a few meters away from the spot, they just turn a blind eye in regulating parking or clearing footpath encroachment.

Pray, that the MCC and Police take immediate steps to clear the hindrances for easy movement of pedestrians and tax-paying citizens.

Online water bill: Set right discrepancies

Sir,

The online payment of water bills on the MCC website has often been unsuccessful, as reported earlier in these columns by consumers. Added to this, the water bill payments made at MysoreOne (Karnataka One) Centres also at times have not been posted against our accounts and often reflects as 'previous dues' in the subsequent bills. Only payments made in the VVWW bill counters seem to be accounted promptly. Will the authorities set right these discrepancies and help the consumers?

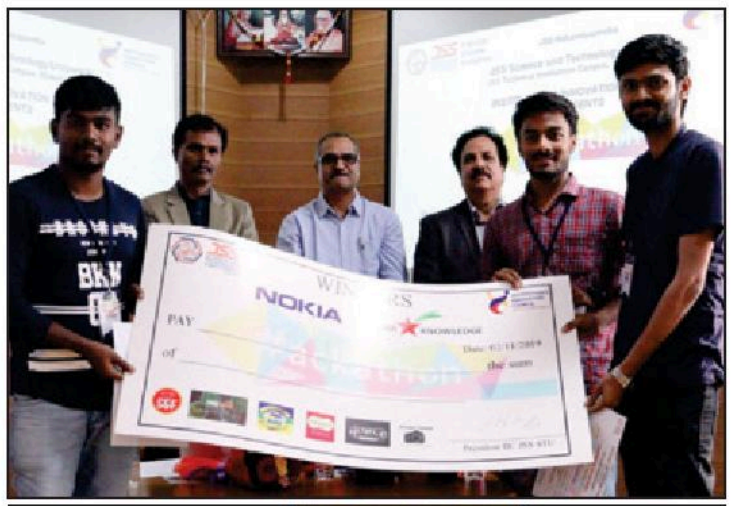
Bengaluru College teams win State-level Hackathon in city



Mysuru, Nov.4 -Today's research is not society-driven and does not comprise a blend of knowledge acquired from various domains, rued JSS Science and Technology University (JSS STU) Vice-Chancellor Dr. Jawahar Nesen. He was speaking at the valedictory of State-level 24-hour Hackathon organised by Institutions Innovation Council (IIC), JSS STU at SJCE premises, here recently.

Stating that inclusive research would pave way for new innovations, Dr. Nesen said that knowledge sharing from various other domains apart from Science and Technology would help in finding permanent or long-lasting solutions for problems that were prevalent in society.

Stating that research works could not be restricted to one particular stream or direction, he said that one must consider diverse nature of the society and most importantly the social background.

Calling upon students to focus on problems at the root level, Dr. Nesen urged students to ensure they visited rural areas, instead of restricting themselves to classrooms, to study real problems of the society.

Dr. Anurag Srivastava, Chief Operating Officer, Society for Innovation and Development, Indian Institute of Science (IISc), Bengaluru, stressed the need to focus on innovation for better future.

Speaking on the topic 'Future readiness' he said "Without innovation, you don't have future. The whole world has much lesser talent and the amount of talent needed is available nowhere except in this country. In the next 50 years, we should be more innovative; 78 percent of employees are concerned with the growing skills gap. Globally, 500 million skills people are required. There are plenty of jobs available but it all depends upon their skills."

After hosting successful conduct of events including Ideathon, Know Your Problem (KYP) and entrepreneurial talks at the College and District- level, IIC - JSS STU hosted a State-level Hackathon on Nov. 1 and 2.

The hackathon was aimed to harness the potential of all innovative minds across the State and to get the best out of them. Both hardware and software streams were made available and students were free to choose either of them. The hackathon focused on aspects including Idea Brain-Storming Phase — Once the problem statements were released to the participants, students were given time to build on their ideas and officials from 'Star Knowledge' helped them streamline their ideas; Solution Building Phase — Participants had the freedom to use various programming languages, software platforms consisting of both front-end, back-end, Machine Learning, Deep Learning, Block Chain to build the solution to the problem statements given.

In the case of Hardware Hackathon, various development boards, and other electronic devices were used to solve problems provided by industrialists; Presentation Phase — Teams were judged on the effectiveness, innovation involved and sustainability of the solution.

More than 300 participants from across the State from various engineering colleges took part in the two-day event. Interest had been shown in both hardware and software streams comprising 30 and 35 teams respectively.

Rave party busted at Kodagu Home Stay

Three arrested; event attracted 121 people from Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Chennai and Chandigarh

Ponnampet, Nov. 4 (PS&BCT)- Over nine months after the Kodagu District Police busted a rave party at a Home Stay at Nelaji village near Napoklu and arrested five persons, the District Police raided another rave party organised at Nalloor village in South Kodagu on Nov.2. This time, three persons, including the Home Stay owner, were arrested.

A press release from the Police stated that there were over 121 people who were partying when the Cops raided the Home Stay late in the night. The Police received a tip-off that a rave party would be organised at 'Wild Heaven,' the Home Stay at Nalloor village near Ponnampet.

The Home Stay is owned by 45-year-old P.K. Muthappa alias Vivek. The local Police and District Crime Investigation Bureau (DCIB) sleuths raided the spot where over 121 people including

Picture for representation only

14 women were partying.

Police said all the participants were youths from various Multi-National Companies (MNCs) and were visiting the party from Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Chennai and Chandigarh. Others who were arrested are Hyderabad-based event organisers 25-year-old L. Nitish, a Master of Science student at Vignana Bharathi Institute of Technology at Hyderabad and a resident of that city and 22-year-old B. Bharathchandra, a B.Tech student in Hyderabad and a resident of Lemane Padu village in Guntur.

The organisers had titled the event 'HOZO' and the party was to be held on Nov.2 and 3. The event was widely shared in social media, inviting participants from all over the country.

Police said that liquor flowed freely, along with dried marijuana (ganja). As much as 65 grams of ganja, 21 beer bottles, two mobile phones, Omkar generator set vehicle, six DJ sound systems and cash of Rs.84,000 collected from the sale of tickets and also from the sale of liquor were seized. Banners that publicised the event were also confiscated.

Following several complaints from the public that late night rave parties were being organised at some Home Stays, Kodagu Police have taken stringent action and raids are part of that action. Police said that all Home Stays will now be under vigil and appealed to the people to tip off the Police about any illegal activities in their neighbourhood.

The seized marijuana is being tested to ascertain if they were grown locally or brought from outside.

A case has been registered at Ponnampet Police Station under Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 Act, Excise Act and other relevant IPC Sections.

Boy kidnapped in Nanjangud escapes from abductors, returns home

Nanjangud, Nov.4 (RS&KS)- A 11-year-old boy has alleged that he was abducted, but managed to escape from his abductors and returned home.

According to the boy, a resident of Devirammanahalli Layout in Nanjangud, he was playing in front of his house on Sunday, when a group of six miscreants, who came in a car, kidnapped him besides stating that they (miscreants) sprayed some medicine which rendered him unconscious.

The boy further stated that when he regained conscious, he was in the car which was parked at the parking lot of Srikanteshwara Swamy Temple and also found two miscreants sitting in the front seat of the car. The boy further stated that he somehow managed to get out of the car and ran to his house.

When the boy's parents enquired him after finding blood stains on his face and hands, the boy informed them that he was kidnapped and he escaped from them and came home.

Nanjangud Rural Police, who visited the boy's house have collected information from him.

The boy being kidnapped by miscreants in a car from a busy area and stopping the car at the temple's parking lot has given rise to suspicion.

Meanwhile, boy's father Parashuram has lodged a complaint with Nanjangud Rural Police, who have registered a case and based on the instruction from Superintendent of Police (SP) C.B. Ryshyanth, Nanjangud Rural Sub-Inspector Puneeth, ASI Srinivas and staff are investigating.

One held for attempting to sell deer meat

Mysuru, Nov. 4 (RK&KS)- The Forest Mobile Squad personnel have arrested a 28-year-old man on charges of attempting to sell deer meat and have seized the deer meat, skin, antlers, deer head and legs from him.

The arrested is Shankar, a resident of Bagali village, Santhemarahalli hobli in Chamarajanagar taluk.

He was arrested while trying to sell the deer meat near Mugur Bus Stand in T. Narasipur taluk yesterday.

During interrogation, the accused is said to have confessed that he had poached the deer at a forest and had brought its meat to sell.

Mysuru District Forest Mobile Squad Sub-Inspector Ravishankar, who has registered a case, is investigating.

Forest Mobile Squad staff M.B. Ramesh, Venkatachalaiah, Raghu, Narasimhamurthy, Manjunath, Cheluvaraj and Pradeep took part in the nabbing and seizing operation.

Corporator to stage protest tomorrow against footpath encroachments

Mysuru, Nov. 4 (PM&DM)- Corporator K.V. Sridhar has urged the MCC to clear footpath encroachments on all roads in city failing which he along with other organisations would stage a protest in front of Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) tomorrow.

Addressing a press meet at Patrakarthara Bhavan here on Saturday, Sridhar said that he along with Pedestrians Welfare Committee and Nav Bharath Nirman Seva Trust, will stage a unique demonstration in front of MCC Office on Sayyaji Rao Road along with push carts, waste advertisement hoardings and power transformer models at 10 am tomorrow.

Maintaining that the encroachment of footpaths on Narayana Shastri Road, Banumaiah Road, Ashoka Road, D. Devaraj Urs road, Dhanvantri Road, Chamaraja Double Road, JLB Road, Kalidasa Road, K.T. Street, Sawday Road and other prominent roads in the central business district has severely hindered pedestrian movement and also put the life of pedestrians at risk, Sridhar alleged that the MCC authorities had failed to clear the encroachments despite numerous protests and representations.

Pointing out that even the Supreme Court has ordered free pedestrian movement on footpaths, Corporator Sridhar wanted the MCC authorities to take the issue seriously in the interests of pedestrians and the general public at large.

Former Corporator K.V. Mallesh, Pedestrian Welfare Committee members Puttaraju, Ramachandra, Satish, Siddaraju and others were present.

KSOU grads not eligible for jobs at MyMUL!

Mysuru, Nov. 4 (RK&US)- Graduates of Karnataka State Open University (KSOU) are not eligible for jobs at Mysuru-Chamarajanagar District Milk Union Limited (MyMUL).

MyMUL had invited applications from eligible candidates online to fill up 168 posts of Assistant Manager, Technical Officer, Accounts Officer, Marketing Officer, Stores Officer, Dairy Supervisor, Extension Officer and Accounts Assistant to be submitted from Sept. 9 to Oct. 9. Accordingly, thousands of candidates had submitted applications and were asked to download admission letters for the written test to be held from Nov. 2 to 5. For candidates with degree from KSOU, the letters were reportedly not uploaded but there was a remark saying 'Rejected'. The disappointed graduates approached KSOU Vice-Chancellor Dr. S. Vidyashankar and aired their grievances.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, the VC said when the matter was brought to the notice of MyMUL Managing Director Dr. Vijaykumar, it was learnt that degrees awarded by Distance Education University were not considered for jobs and the notification of appointment was published after getting approval of the Government. He added that a letter has been sent to MyMUL and that the MD's reply was awaited.

Snatching away rights of Legislators under anti-defection law is not correct: Political Analyst

Mysuru, Nov. 4 (SPN&DM)- Political analyst Ravindra Reshme opined that it was not right on the part of Congress and JD(S) parties to snatch away the fundamental rights of their Legislators under the anti-defection law.

He was speaking after inaugurating an interaction on the topic 'A review of disqualification of Legislators and Constitutional Violations in Karnataka,' organised by Karnataka Rajya Shaikshanika Diksoochi Mathu Sudharana Samithi at Sarada Vilas Law College, Krishnamurthypuram here on Saturday.

Referring to the disqualification of Congress and JD(S) Legislators who quit their Assembly seats that led to the downfall of the coalition Government a few months ago, Reshme said that Legislators who believe in ideology, social values and commitment, do not tolerate the dictatorial attitude of their parties and this was the reason why 17 MLAs from the Congress and JD(S) rebelled against their parties and quit the Assembly.

Referring to former Minister D.K. Shivakumar (DKS), who was released from prison a few days ago after being arrested by the ED in connection with a money laundering case, he wondered why Shivakumar was questioning the investigating agencies for questioning about his benami assets and transactions.

Taking former CM Siddharamaiah to task for not speaking about DKS, Reshme asked the Congress leaders to introspect on corruption, with many leaders of the party facing big charges of corruption and power abuse.

Disqualified JD(S) MLA from Hunsur A.H. Vishwanath maintained that the leaders of both the Congress and JD(S) neglected their Legislators and this was the reason for their resignation.

He claimed that 17 Legislators quit their seats to come out of the confusions and the contradictions within the coalition Government.

Vishwanath expressed hope that the voters would understand the reasons for his quitting the Assembly.

Services at Mysuru (North) Sub-Registrar's Office resumes

Mysuru, Nov.4 (SBD&DM)- Three weeks after services were badly affected due to technical glitch, the services at the Mysuru (North) Sub-Registrar's Office located in Mini Vidhana Soudha returned to normal last Saturday.

Following a technical glitch in the computer network system, the services at the office, which mainly included registration of properties were stopped over 20 days ago, resulting in a lot of inconvenience for general public.

The Office had put up a notice regretting the inconvenience caused to the public due to disruption of services. But now, the server problem has been rectified by C-DAC and HEL Company, which controls the network system.

With the rectification of the technical fault, the services have resumed as usual, with 51 property registrations done on Saturday, according to Sub-Registrar Kiran.

Theatre personality calls for labour-intensive and job-creative economic policy

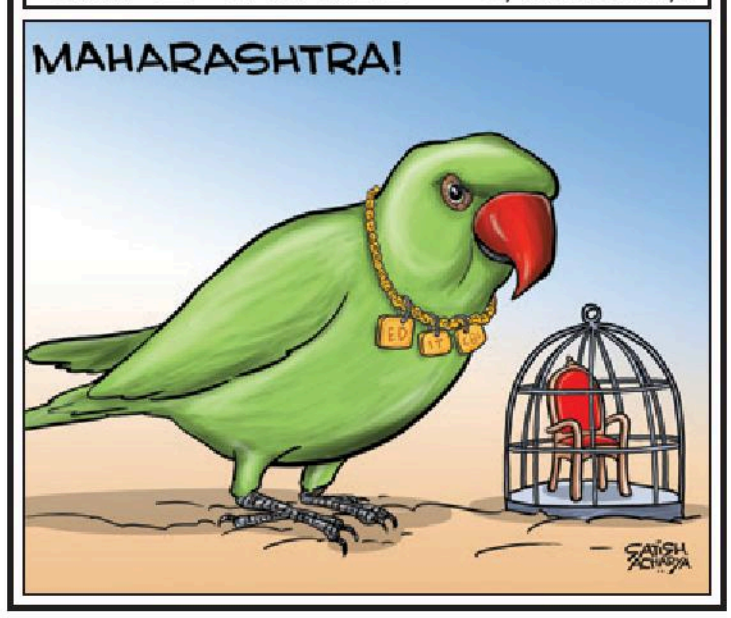
Mysuru, Nov.4 - Theatre personality and social activist Prasanna has said that what the country needed today is an eco-friendly, labour-intensive and job-creative economic policy as against what he termed 'monster economy' that was capital-intensive coupled with automation and capitalism.

He was speaking at a lecture programme organised by Gram Seva Sangha on the concept of 'sacred economy' at Nrupatunga Kannada School here recently.

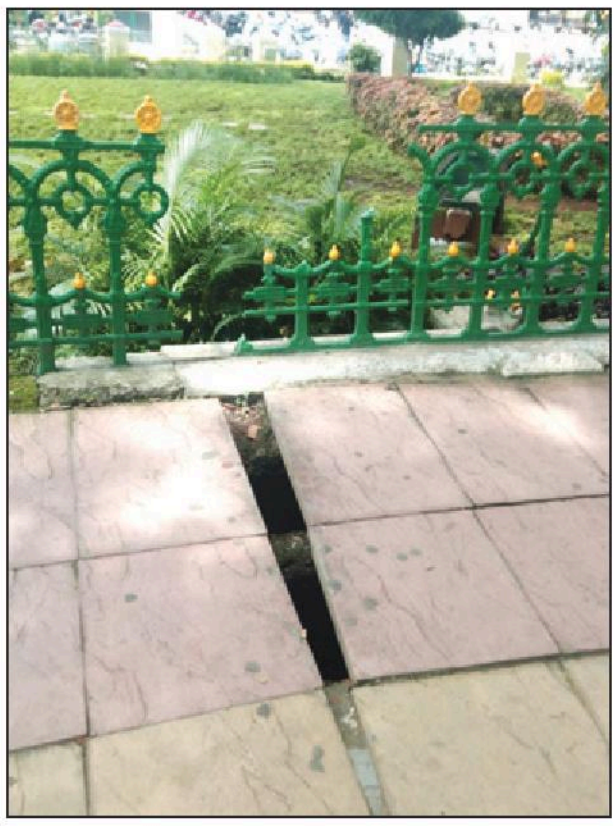
He noted that the current economic crisis was a fallout of the pursuit of machine-based automated manufacturing that rendered thousands jobless and made the environment unsustainable. Making a strong plea for encouraging small and micro sectors as well as the cottage industry, he called for the revival of handloom sector. Creating jobs and conserving the environment are the twin pillars on which the concept of 'sacred economy' rests, he opined.

Major General (retd.) S.G. Vombatkere, Writer Prof. Kalegowda Nagawara, former Rangayana Directors Janardhan, Bhagirathi Bai Kadam and others were present.

STAR PUNCH By Satish Acharya



An apology of a FENCE



Mysuru, Nov. 4- Mysuru's heritage properties are victimised by modern expansion, official apathy, lack of concern and a total lack of knowledge about the structures built by the erstwhile Wadiyars. These properties are, however, crucial in helping Mysureans to connect with their past.

While the heritage structures that dot the city get some attention, the least attention is given to ornate fences that surround the buildings. A fence is important in the presentation of a building and usually complements the style and era of the property. A fence differs from a wall in not having a solid foundation along its whole length.

If an original fence still exists, heritage experts recommend that the fence must be retained and conserved. The aim is to conserve as much of the original fence material as possible, and replace only what is necessary. A fence that replicates a fence style common to the period and style of the building to which it relates may be appropriate, they suggest.

But unfortunately, fences around key buildings in city are in a shambles and no effort has been made so far to safeguard them. Star of Mysore reader Vidyuth Shashidhar has sent us a few photographs of fences that need urgent repairs and restoration.

The Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) is one such office where the fences around it are in a dilapidated state. This building was built during Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar and the structure slightly resembles the Mysore Palace as both of them are built in Indo-Sarcenic Architecture Style.

"Thanks to these magnificent structures, Mysuru has earned the sobriquets like 'Cultural Capital', 'Heritage City' and 'City of Palaces.' But if one examines the structures and the fences surrounding them, one will cringe in disgust as the fences have not been maintained at all," he says.

During the rule of the Wadiyars most of these buildings were fenced with an artistic fencing. Wadiyars ensured that fencing is consistent in design, materials and scale. These fencing materials were manufactured by Visvesvaraya Iron and Steel Plant. These cast iron fencing can be seen in K.R. Hospital, Command Area Development Authority Office (CADA), MCC Office, Chamarajendra Academy of Visual Arts (old CAVA building), Mysore Medical College and the Mysore Palace, he says.

Even the City Railway Station Office had an artistic fencing but unfortunately this fencing was removed and a modern fencing has been put up which has no history or significance of the past. K.R. Hospital and CADA Office authorities are unable to maintain it — here too they are gradually being replaced by concrete compound walls.

Stakeholders bat for Bandipur Night Traffic Ban

Mysuru, Nov.4 (MTY&DM)- Wildlife activists and stakeholders from Karnataka want to maintain status quo on the movement of vehicles on National Highway passing through Bandipur Tiger Reserve in Gundlupet taluk of Chamarajanagar district. They made their stand clear at a programme organised at the Institution of Engineers-India (IEI) on JLB Road in city yesterday.

They also opined that there should not be a total ban of traffic on National Highway 212 (now 766) at Bandipur Tiger Reserve from Gundlupet to Sultan Batheri in Kerala and the existing ban of vehicle movement between 9 pm and 6 am must stay.

Balagopalan, a retired IAS officer from Wayanad, addressing the gathering at a programme organised at the Institution of Engineers-India (IEI) on JLB Road in city yesterday.

Outcome to be compiled

The interaction was organised after the Supreme Court in September this year came up with a suggestion on exploring alternative routes on travel and also whether day traffic ban too could be imposed. The outcome of the discussion will be compiled and submitted to Union Ministry of Environment, Forests and Climate Change and National Highways Authority of India for their consideration.

Delivering the keynote address, Major General (retd.) Sudhir Vombatkere maintained that the night traffic ban was a good idea that has been made taking into conservation all aspects regarding wildlife conservation. He said, one must understand that the Supreme Court has only given its opinion and not a binding order on the issue.

Tourism not affected

Mysuru Hotel owners Association President C. Narayanagowda said that soon after the Government ordered night traffic ban, there was opposition from some quarters that the ban would badly affect tourism and other allied sectors. But the theory proved false.

Asserting that the Association will not demand lifting of night traffic ban, he highlighted the risks and the dangers of night travel through forest areas especially when the vehicles break down or their tyres get punctured in the middle of forest. He, however, said that there should not be any ban on day travel.

Alternative routes was difficult

Col. (retd.) C.P. Muthanna of Coorg Wildlife Society argued that finding alternative routes was a difficult proposition as the other possible routes too pass through forests. Pointing out that although Periyapatna and Gonikoppa roads can be considered as an alternative, he said that these two roads too cut across the core tiger reserve area and as such it will be a risk to consider them.

Claiming that there is already high density of traffic on these roads and the Tholpetty and Begur Elephant Corridors are close by, Col. Muthanna reiterated that night traffic ban at Bandipur must continue.

Concerns of Kodagu people

He said people of Kodagu were concerned about the possibility of a 24x7 traffic ban through Bandipur as it would mean diverting all vehicles through Kodagu. He said diverting all vehicles through Kodagu would be disastrous for wildlife as it cuts through elephant corridors in the region while pointing out that the existing night traffic ban along NH-212 had led to an increase in the traffic density along the Anechowkur-Gonikoppa-Makutta route.

A fundamental right

P.C. Gopinath, an Advocate from Wayanad in Kerala, however, struck a different note. He suggested that night traffic ban should be lifted. "Night traffic is a fundamental right of every citizen and the ban is violative of the National Highways Act. "We have concern for wildlife and ecology but, Forest Department should take measures to protect wildlife," he said.

He said that thousands of labourers travel between Gundlupet and Wayanad for daily bread. In addition, farmers and vegetable vendors depend on the road for business. "Complete ban would affect the common people. Even night ban should be lifted," he said.

Wildlife habituated

Balagopalan, a retired IAS officer from Wayanad, suggested "sensible" decision on the issue as ecology and wildlife were more important. As per a report, 70% of roadkills of wild animals is reported during night. The night traffic ban was imposed a decade ago and the wild animals are used to it, he said. Radhakrishna of Wayanad said that the people of Wayanad were totally dependent on Karnataka for vegetable and rice. A complete ban would be a disastrous situation, he said.

Members of over 25 organisations from Mysuru, Chamarajanagar and Kodagu districts of Karnataka and Wayanad and Malappuram districts in Kerala took part in the debate. Wildlife photographers Krupakar and Senani, Naturalist D. Rajkumar and others were present.

River Rafting in Kodagu District 60 rafts to be given licence

Madikeri, Nov.4 (PS&KS)- Kodagu Deputy Commissioner (DC) Annies Kanmani Joy, who chaired the White Water River Rafting review meeting at her office on Nov.1, has decided to issue licences to 60 raft operators in the district next season.

The meeting also decided to continue those who were issued licences this year based on the recommendations of a Technical Committee.

Though river rafting is popular among tourists visiting Kodagu, the District Administration had temporarily banned it in early 2018 due to allegations of irregularities and the death of a tourist.

Razi Ahmed, a 21-year-old tourist from Hyderabad, died after he was assaulted with a wooden oar by some rafting crew at Dubare Rafting Camp coming under Nanjarayapatna Gram Panchayat near Kushalnagar.

The ban was imposed in the wake of several complaints from tourists and villagers that adventure activity organisers have no expertise in river rafting and some of them are organising such events just to make money. The ban was imposed as mandatory safety measures were not followed by organisers and lives were at stake. The ban, however, was subsequently revoked.

The DC directed the officials of Public Works Department (PWD), Fire and Emergency Services, Tourism and other Departments to conduct surprise spot inspections and assess the number of rafters operating at various rafting in the district.

A few members of the River Rafting Committee raised objections over the delay in issue of Fitness Certificates for boats following which the DC said that the certificates will be issued within a day from next year.

Tourism Department representatives were instructed to issue an advisory on the terms and conditions necessary to operate rafting including fixing of prices. The DC warned the guides of initiating legal action if they are found levying higher rates.

She instructed the Assistant Director of Tourism Department to issue press release and give publicity about the information pertaining to necessary guidelines. The DC also instructed the officials to put up a board containing the prescribed rates for rafting at Dubare and Barapole for the benefit of tourists.

Superintendent of Police Dr. Suman D. Pennekar instructed the officials to implement the rules that are in force at Barapole at Dubare too. Assistant Commissioner T. Javaregowda, PWD Executive Engineer Ibrahim, District Fire Officer P. Chandan, Tourism Department Assistant Director Raghavendra, River Rafting Committee Members Ritesh, Vishwa, Manjunath and others were present.

Mahabhishekha to Nandi Statue

Mysuru, Nov.4 (MTY&SD)- The colossal Nandi Statue, located mid-way on Mysuru-Chamundi Hill Road, was this morning bathed in more than 49 sacred herbs and flowers, including milk, honey, cane juice, curds, ghee, payasam, sacred ash, dry fruits, tender coconut water, sandalwood, kumkum, turmeric, rice flour, banana and other fruits as devotees performed 'Mahabhishekha.'

The event is being organised by the members of 'Betta Hattuvara Balaga' (a group of regular morning walkers to the hill) since the past nine years.

The sacred ritual is performed annually on first Monday of Kartika month of the Hindu calendar. It is said that the practice of performing 'Mahasbhishekha' to the monolith existed during the reign of Wadiyars.

The ritual began at around 10.30 am.

Prior to the 'Mahabhishekha,' the statue was cleaned with water and a number of priests, including Mallikarjuna and Ganesh, performed the abhishekha, which was witnessed by hundreds of devotees and tourists.

It may be recalled that a portion of Chamundi Hill along with the retaining wall had collapsed due to recent intermittent rains last month. The road between View Point and Nandi Statue atop Chamundi Hill had been temporarily closed for vehicular traffic resulting in fewer number of devotees witnessing the colourful annual event.

President of Balaga Subbaraja Urs, office-bearers Praveen, Vinay, Sridhar, Srinivas, Shivu and others were present.

The Devikere, Tavarekatte, Karanji Lake, abutting the Mysuru Zoo and the Dalvoy Lake, are interconnected. Breach in Tavarekatte results in water flowing via Rajakaluves through J.C. Nagar, Income Tax Layout and SDM-IMD campus and entering the Karanji Lake. From Karanji Lake, excess water flows via Mall of Mysore, Mysore Race Club, and opposite Madhuvana to reach Yelethota from where water flows into the Dalvoy Lake.

Water and green surroundings are set to bring in migratory birds during the migration season that begins from second half of this month. Tavarekatte Lake, however, is now turning dirtier as many local villagers come here regularly to poop and wash with the lake water. Slowly, the place is becoming a dumpyard of waste. This morning, many boys were seen swimming in the Lake. Environmentally conscious residents say that there are many private properties adjoining the Lake and the wooded area has become a place for nefarious activities.

MUDA General Meeting on Nov.8

Mysuru, Nov. 4 (RK&DM)- The General Meeting of MUDA will take place at MUDA Hall on JLB Road in city at 11 am on Nov.8. The meeting will be chaired by Deputy Commissioner Abhiram G. Sankar, who is also the MUDA Chairman.

The meeting is expected to discuss over 150 issues including allotment of CA (Civic Amenities) sites in different localities, Ballahalli Layout and imbroglio and getting Government nod for five more residential layouts, among others.

MUDA's Group Housing Project

In all, MUDA received a total of 46,346 applications for 1,348 houses. Following the overwhelming response, the then MUDA Chairman D. Dhruvakumar and the then Commissioner N. Mahesh sent a proposal to the Government along with the project blueprint and Detailed Project Report (DPR).

Govt. seeks details, sits on file

But following a change in the Government after the Assembly polls, the Urban Development Department Secretary wrote to the MUDA seeking details on the criteria and the rules framed for distribution of houses.

Following the letter, the current MUDA Commissioner P.S. Kantharaju replied to the Government along with details.

The Government now is sitting on the files even as there are over 1.35 lakh applicants waiting for MUDA sites for over twenty years. MUDA that is facing acute shortage of land within city limits had come up with this exclusive housing project in order to ease the pressure on housing.

MUDA had adopted the BDA (Bangalore Development Authority) model in building vertical group houses. But the delay in Government clearance has only extended MUDA's wait and the applicants' anguish.

Congress laps up CM's audio clip; stages protest

Mysuru, Nov.4- (RK&DM)- Stepping up their attack on Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa over a purported video containing his remarks on resignations of Congress and JD-S MLAs, Karnataka Congress staged a State-wide protest this morning.

In Mysuru, over a hundred members of the city and district units of the Congress party staged a demonstration at Gandhi Square seeking the resignation of Yediyurappa and Union Home Minister Amit Shah accusing them of bringing down the Congress-JD(S) coalition Government by openly encouraging defections.

The protesters said that Yediyurappa has no right to continue in the office. "We are demanding his resignation because whatever Yediyurappa and Amit Shah are doing is a conspiracy to murder democracy and constitution. He has no right to continue in the office," he said.

"Karnataka's present Government is an unholy Government. This Government is short of numbers. If Yediyurappa cannot win 7-8 seats, what will be the scenario? Yediyurappa will have to resign," they said.

MLA Tanveer Sait, former MLA M.K. Somashekar, former Mayors B.K. Prakash, Modamani, R.G. Narasimha Iyengar, Pushpalatha Chikkanna and T.B. Chikkanna, KPCC Women's Wing President Dr. Pushpa Amarnath, City Congress President R. Murthy, District President Dr. B.J. Vijaykumar, leaders M.C. Chikkanna, Bhaskar L. Gowda, H. Aravind and others were present.

SC urged to take on record BSY's voice in audio clip

New Delhi, Nov. 4- The Karnataka Congress on Monday requested the Supreme Court hearing the MLA disqualification case to take on record a fresh audio clip in which Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa is purportedly referring to rebel MLAs.

A Bench headed by Justice N.V. Ramana this morning said it will consult Chief Justice Ranjan Gogoi for constituting the Bench tomorrow to consider the fresh material given by the Karnataka Congress.

A purported audio clip of Yediyurappa expressing anguish against leaders at a recent party meeting in Hubballi over their opposition to giving tickets to disqualified Congress-JD(S) MLAs for the Dec. 5 Assembly by-polls in 15 Assembly constituencies had surfaced Friday last.

In the audio, he is purportedly saying that the rebel Congress JD(S) MLAs, who were later disqualified, were kept in Mumbai during the final days of the coalition Government under BJP national President Amit Shah's watch. He had purportedly hit out at party leaders for lack of support in "saving" the BJP Government and not recognising their "sacrifice", behind party coming to power.

The Top Court had on October 25 reserved verdict on a batch of petitions challenging the disqualification of 17 Karnataka MLAs before the trust vote moved by the previous Kumaraswamy Government.

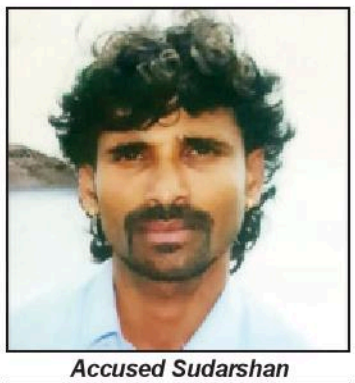
Ramakrishnanagar, J.P. Nagar direct city bus service: KSRTC clarifies

Mysuru,Nov.4- In response to a letter that appeared in the Voice of the Reader column in Star of Mysore recently regarding the demand for a direct bus service between Ramakrishnanagar and J.P. Nagar, the KSRTC has clarified that it is operating 24 trips daily on J.P. Nagar and Gurur routes from Kuvempunagar Depot. But these trips have evoked poor response from the commuters. As such, the commuters are advised to fully utilise the services of 23 outgoing and 24 incoming trips operated from Kuvempunagar depot.

The patronisation of these routes will help the KSRTC to operate the trips on a permanent basis and also enable it to receive feedback from the commuters, according to a release issued by KSRTC, Mysuru City Division.

Allegedly harassed by hubby

Woman, daughter commit suicide



Accused Sudarshan

Deceased Jaya and Priyadarshini

Mysuru, Nov. 4 (RK&KS)- Alleged harassment by a man forced a woman and her daughter to commit suicide by hanging at Hebbal in city yesterday. The deceased had used two sides of a single veil to hang themselves to a ceiling fan. The deceased are Jaya (34) and her daughter Priyadarshini (11), natives of Shivamogga.

According to Jaya's mother Sarojamma, Jaya had married S.N. Sudarshan, 12 years ago. Sudarshan, a native of Kottigehara in Chikkamagalur, was working as a lift mechanic and the family was staying at a rented house near Surya Bakery in Hebbal.

Sarojamma alleged that Sudarshan used to harass her daughter mentally and physically and used to lock them up at their house before going out. "My daughter had narrated her ordeal many times," she claimed.

Sarojamma further said that yesterday morning her daughter had called her over phone and told her that she was unable to bear the harassment by Sudarshan. "My daughter told me that she was frustrated and would kill herself along her daughter. She also told me that Sudarshan used to threaten to kill her," Sarojamma said. She wailed that after revealing the suicide plan, her daughter cut the call.

She further stated that she had called her daughter and told her to come home and live with her. But her daughter had told her that she could not come as her husband had locked them inside the house and left. "I was devastated on hearing the plan but I controlled my emotions as I thought the issue will cool down. I had not imagined that Jaya will take this extreme step along with her daughter," she added.

Yesterday at about 8 pm, Vijayanagar Police called Sarojamma over phone and informed her about the suicide and asked her to come to Mysuru immediately. Sarojamma reached Mysuru this morning and the Police conducted the mahazar and shifted the bodies to MMC&RI mortuary for post-mortem. Based on the complaint by Sarojamma, the Police have now arrested Sudarshan.

Miscreant steals cash, jewels of woman in bus

Srirangapatna, Nov. 4 (Nagaiah &KS)- A miscreant, in the guise of a passenger, has stolen cash and gold jewellery of a woman travelling in the same bus yesterday.

The woman, who lost Rs.5,000 cash and gold earrings weighing about six grams, is Kamakshi, a resident of Moodlupalya in Bengaluru.

According to the complaint lodged by Kamakshi at Srirangapatna Police Station, yesterday morning, she was travelling from Bengaluru towards Hunsur during which a 60-year-old co-passenger, stole her cash and gold ornament. Srirangapatna Police, who have registered a case, are investigating.

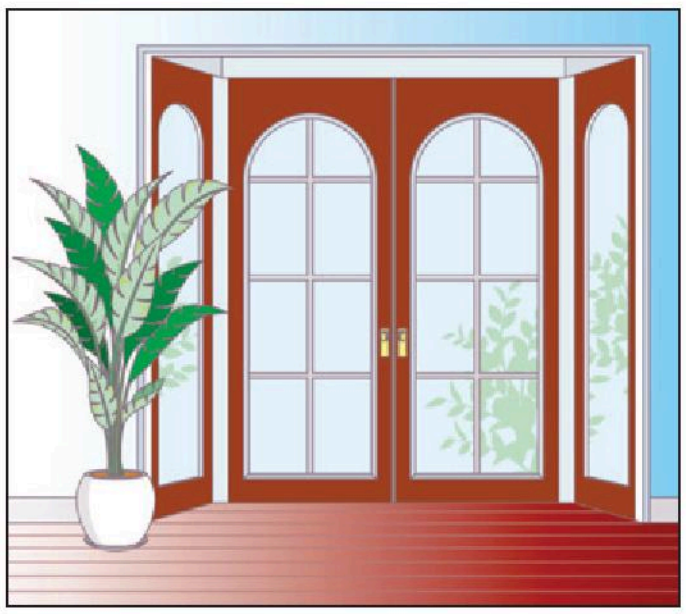
Vaastu-Feng Shui & Bio-energetics

By S.B.S.Surendran
Accredited Master Feng Shui Consultant

For active homes



Feng Shui is an ancient Chinese philosophy that seeks to harmonise the human experience with our surrounding environment. Feng Shui teaches us that everything is energy, and we are in a constant energy exchange with everything around us. Hence it is very important to create a Feng Shui home that has a happy and healthy energy.

Architects, interior designers and home owners are now not having inhibition in trying out the science of Feng Shui. A good Feng Shui house has good Feng Shui anchored in its main activity zones or energy centres such as bedroom, kitchen and the bathroom. The quality of Feng Shui energy in a house mainly depends on the strength of Feng Shui energy in the above areas.

Logically, the entranceway is the gateway for flow of Chi in a home. Keeping this area clean, clutter-free and fresh is essential. Placing plants and a clean door mat can make the entrance more welcoming.

Feng Shui says that the path leading to the door must always be curved and not a simple straight line. This way, the good Chi can flow in, but the bad energy stays out. Even from an aesthetic point of view, it is hard to disagree. A curved entrance always has more appeal.

Traditional Chinese philosophy holds that there are five essential elements: fire, metal, earth, wood and water. Each element has a corresponding colour or hue. For example, red is passion, blue is relaxation, brown is grounding, etc.

Hence, while adapting colours, one needs to exercise caution. Feng Shui suggests use of soothing, light and tranquil shades for the bedroom along with hints of natural greenery to uplift the space. Most importantly, it is good to combine a maximum of three colours in any specific room.

Using good lighting, mirrors and decor can uplift the energy flow in a room. Well-placed mirrors can help transmit the flow of energy. Place them in dining areas to increase the enjoyment of meals or near dark areas to bring light and energy to that space. But don't put mirrors directly in front of a door.

Some symbols aid in improving the energy flow hence adapting the following symbolism would help:

• Place a Dragon Turtle. The dragon brings the Chi of success, courage and determination while the turtle symbolises longevity.

• The Amethyst Gem Tree is believed to have great healing properties, bringing great strength, peace of mind and contentment.

• A pair of Golden Pigs will bring great prosperity and happiness to a household. A symbol of honesty and tolerance, the pig also signifies initiative and diligence.

Everything around us is in constant flow, in constant change. So, even after you've created a strong Feng Shui foundation in your house, the work continues. You have to get into the habit of keeping the energy fresh and flowing, and be very mindful about not creating stuck areas in your house.

Intl. workshop on 'Bio-imaging Trends and Applications in Life Sciences"

Dignitaries seen during the inauguration of the three-day International Workshop on 'Embracing Industry 4.0 Revolution - Bio-imaging Trends and Applications in Life Sciences' at JSS S&TU recently.

Mysuru, Nov.4- The Department of Biotechnology, JSS Science and Technology University (JSS S&TU), in association with the Departments of Information Science and Computer Science, had organised an International Workshop on Bio-imaging Trends and Applications in Life Sciences recently, as an initiative of TEQIP III.

Several academicians, industrialists, undergraduate and postgraduate research scholars and students from around Karnataka participated.

This three-day international workshop provided an opportunity for all the participants to have an experience on current understanding of cell death modalities and the use of bio-imaging techniques to precision control cellular fate. The rightful blend of theory and hands-on exposure provided unique insights into relevance of interdisciplinary work including Electrical and Electronics Engineering, Computational Sciences and Life Sciences.

Dr. B. Suresh, Pro-Chancellor, JSS Academy of Higher Education and Research (AHER), who was the chief guest for the inaugural ceremony, spoke about the human's evolution of interests in aesthetics, prosthetics, bionics and robotics. He further added that the doors of JSS AHER is wide open for scientific collaborations and exchange of ideas, which would benefit students and society, at large.

This was further emphasised by the guest speaker, Dr. Ben Loos, Professor, Department of Physiological Sciences, Stellenbosch University, South Africa.

Dr. Ben said that the workshop is a unique cocktail of molecular imaging, super resolution imaging, machine learning, bio-modelling and computational biology which makes it one of its kind.

Prof. T.N. Nagabhushan, Principal, SJCE, presided and explained the essence of industrial revolution 4.0 to the students.

The programme was attended by many other dignitaries of various academic interests.

Dr. M.N. Nagendra Prasad, Head, Department of Biotechnology, welcomed the gathering. Dr. S. Nanjunda Swamy briefed about the workshop to the participants and Prof. S. Maheshan proposed a vote of thanks.

Expo of rare manuscripts at ORI

Mysuru, Nov.4 (YDS&US)- A four-day exhibition of rare manuscripts, organised at Oriental Research Institute (ORI), University of Mysore (UoM), to commemorate the birth centenary of Sri Jayachamaraja Wadiyar, concluded on Nov.2.

Inaugurating the expo, Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar said that ORI was a treasure house of knowledge and likened it to Ambari of Mysore Palace.

He observed that the first choice of many tourists was Mysore Palace and suggested that the knowledge treasure at ORI should also be made available to tourists and local people.

He recalled that Jayachamaraja Wadiyar, during his reign of seven years, had translated Rig Veda and Puranas from Sanskrit to Kannada which are still preserved at ORI.

Speaking on the occasion, UoM Vice-Chancellor Prof. G. Hemantha Kumar recalled that ORI was started earlier to UoM and opined that such institutes would help preserve rare scriptures to be passed on to the younger generation.

UoM Registrar Dr. R. Shivappa, ORI Director Dr. S. Shivarajappa and others were present.

Expo details: The expo featured manuscripts of Veda-Upanishad, history, literature and mythology, Jayachamaraja Wadiyar's translation of Rig Veda and Puranas, Adbuta Ramayana, Adyatma Ramayana, Ananda Ramayana, works of Shankaracharya, Veerashaiva Grantha, Dasashana, Brahma Purana, Padma Purana, Vishnu Purana, Vayu Purana, Linga Maha Purana, Skanda Purana, Markandeya Purana, Vamana Purana, Varaha Purana, Matsya Purana, Shiva Purana, Kalika Purana, etc.

Also included were measures to preserve rare palm scripts and manuscripts along with digitisation of manuscripts and tools needed to study the scripts.

Barty wins WTA finals

Scoops richest prize in tennis history

Shenzhen, Nov.4- World number one Ashleigh Barty spectacularly ended her jinx against defending champion Elina Svitolina to win the WTA Finals on Sunday and scoop the richest prize in tennis history. Barty, who had never beaten Svitolina in five previous attempts, won 6-4, 6-3 in one hour and 26 minutes at the Shenzhen Bay Sports Centre. The Australian claimed a record-setting US$4.42 million paycheque - the largest sum ever awarded in men's and women's tennis.

Barty's only loss was to late replacement Kiki Bertens and she became the fifth debutant to win the lucrative round-robin tourney.

Novak Djokovic bags fifth Paris Masters Title

Paris, Nov.4- Novak Djokovic eased to a record-extending fifth Paris Masters title by brushing aside Canadian youngster Denis Shapovalov in Sunday's final, boosting his hopes of taking the year-end world number one spot.

The top seed claimed a dominant 6-3, 6-4 victory over his 20-year-old opponent, who looked nervous after being the beneficiary of Rafael Nadal's withdrawal before their scheduled semi-final. Djokovic will lose top spot in rankings to Nadal next week, but could still equal Pete Sampras' record by finishing a 6th year as world's best player.

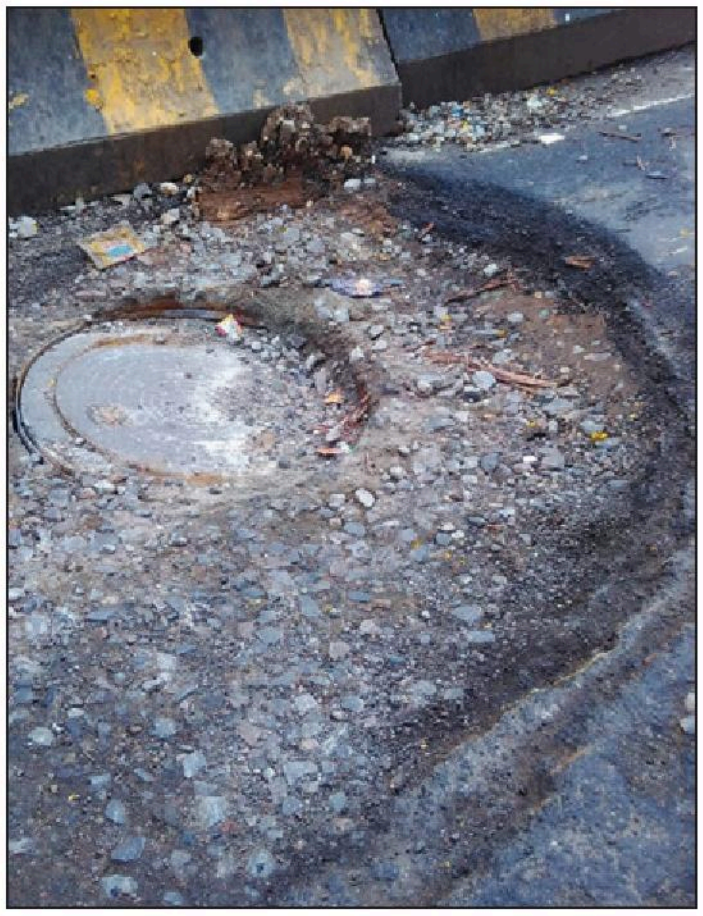
A disaster waiting to happen near Suburban Bus Stand



With a portion of the road near a manhole damaged and a huge crater-like pothole formed, a disaster is sure to happen if the authorities concerned do not asphalt the road and set right the manhole near the Suburban Bus Stand in city. Hundreds of vehicles including buses ply on this ever-busy road and there are chances of two-wheeler riders losing control of their vehicles and falling down thus injuring themselves. Authorities concerned are urged to take steps to get the road asphalted at the earliest.

Vacant site posing danger to residents at Bannimantap

A vacant site on HUDCO Main Road behind Someshwara Temple in Bannimantap 3rd Stage is filled with over grown parthenium plants, bushes and other weeds. Residents say that the place is infested with reptiles of all types and there are instances of snakes entering neighbouring houses. The residents have urged the authorities concerned to get the vacant site cleaned at the earliest.

'Nanna Desha Nanna Hemme' campaign launched

Mysuru, Nov. 4 (YDS&US)- "Mysuru is ideal for tourism which should be developed to draw tourists from all over the world," opined Mysore Airport Director R. Manjunath.

He was speaking after launching a Pravasi Abhiyan Nanna Desha Nanna Hemme organised by Brahmakumari Eshwariya Vishwa Vidyalaya at a function held at Jnana Prakasha Bhavan in Yadavagiri here on Saturday.

Manjunath said that the culture of Sikkim is unique where people worship mountains and tourists are introduced to that culture. He contended that Mysuru has earned name in cultural and spiritual sector which should be made aware to tourists.

Speaking on the occasion, Tourism Department Regional Manager U.B. Uday Kumar opined that an introspection of facilities available in Mysuru should be done before claiming that the city has everything for tourism. He claimed that indiscipline was responsible for many inadequacies. He observed that tourists usually focus on visiting Mysore Palace and KRS which should be developed to meet the expectations of tourists. He pointed out that Government employees cannot act and function independently and hence sought the co-operation of employees of all Departments and public to uphold tourism at desired level. He opined that every tourist place should have good road to access, ample drinking water and clean toilets. He added that tourists should have access to taste Mysore Pak, Mysore Rasabale and other popular dishes of city.

Brahmakumaris Mysuru Zone Head B.K. Lakshmiji, Aviation and Tourism National Convenor B.K. Kamaleshji, Hotel Owners Association President C. Narayana Gowda, Mysore Travel Association President H. Shivalingaiah and others were present.

SBM Pensioners Commune celebrates 25th anniversary in city

Mysuru, Nov. 4 (US&RK)- Marking its 25th anniversary, SBM (State Bank of Mysore) Pensioners Commune had organised a function at Jaganmohan Palace here on Oct. 30.

About 1,500 SBM pensioners from various parts of the State participated. A health check-up camp was also organised in association with Narayana Hrudayalaya.

Inaugurating the programme, Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar congratulated the Commune in completing 25 years. He recalled that Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar was instrumental in commencing SBM and many more organisations to uphold the grandeur of Mysore Province.

Commune President K.N. Sreenivas Rao presided. State Bank of India Deputy General Manager M. Arunagiri, SBM Retirees Association President Dr. A. Ananthakrishna Rao, Reception Committee Chairman Nanjundaswamy, Executive Committee General Secretary Prasad, Treasurer P. Sundar and others were present.

Earlier to that, about 200 pensioners took out a Heritage Walk from Kote Anjaneyaswamy Temple covering many heritage buildings in city.

Prof. Y.S. Siddegowda couple feted by Seers

Mysuru, Nov. 4 (YDS&SD)- "Country will develop if education and teachers are given priority. Even before civilisations started in many parts of the world, civilisation in India had grown widely," opined Adichunchanagiri Seer Sri Nirmalanandanatha Swamiji.

He was speaking at a function organised by Prof. Y.S. Siddegowda Felicitation Committee and Department of Studies in Social Work, University of Mysore (UoM) to felicitate Prof. Y.S. Siddegowda on the occasion of his superannuation at Senate Bhavan, Manasagangothri campus, yesterday. Prof. Siddegowda is currently the Vice-Chancellor of Tumkur University.

Suttur Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji said "studying in Mysore University and working here is a privilege. Mysore University has created its own mark in the world map. Siddegowda is a good teacher as well as an able administrator," he said.

A commemorative book 'Savyasaachi' on Prof. Y.S. Siddegowda edited by Dr. B. Jagadish and Dr. K.G. Parashurama was released on the occasion. National Organising Secretary of Bharatiya Shikshan Mandal, New Delhi, Mukul Kanitkar, UoM VC Prof. G. Hemantha Kumar, Prof. Bhashyam Swamiji, former KSOU VC Dr. N.S. Ramegowda, ex-MLA Vasu and others were present.

Read Kannada books: Legal expert Dr. C.K.N. Raja

Mysuru, Nov. 4 (MK&SD)- "People have money to buy snacks but not books. If you love Kannada, please cultivate the habit of reading Kannada books," opined legal expert Dr. C.K.N. Raja.

He was speaking on the occasion of Yoga Namana, Kannada Rajyotsava and Felicitation programme organised at NaMo Yoga Bhavana on Ramanuja Road in the city recently.

"We should inculcate the habit of reading. Read at least ten pages per day, preferably Kannada books. We are very good eaters, but we don't know how to digest it. Physical and mental health both are important," he added.

Senior Medical Officer Dr. D. Thimmaiah, who also spoke, stressed the importance of health and wellness in today's world and advised to practice yoga to lead a hassle-free life.

As part of Kannada Rajyotsava celebrations, Yoga Guru Ramesh, Dr. C.K.N. Raja and Dr. D. Thimmaiah were felicitated on the occasion. Corporator B.V. Manjunath, Yoga Prakash, Anantu, Dr. Sheela Sridhar, Babu, Vishnusena and others were present.

C.H. Vijayashankar to return to BJP tomorrow

Mysuru, Nov. 4 (SBD&DM)- Former MP and Congress leader C.H. Vijayashankar, who had unsuccessfully contested on a Congress ticket from Mysuru-Kodagu Constituency in the Lok Sabha polls held in April this year, will rejoin the BJP at the party headquarters in Malleshwaram, Bengaluru, tomorrow at 3 pm.

C.H.Vijayashankar

Vijayashankar was with the BJP since the 1990s and had represented the Mysuru Lok Sabha Constituency twice. After being elected as an MLC, he served as the Forest Minister for about six months in the B.S. Yediyurappa Government in 2010-11. Vijayashankar, who got upset with the BJP after he was denied the ticket to contest from Mysuru-Kodagu Lok Sabha Constituency (the ticket went to Pratap Simha, the current MP), left the BJP to join the Congress ahead of last year's Assembly polls. Now he is returning to the BJP after a gap of nearly twenty months.

Speaking to SOM, Vijayashankar said that he has been invited by top BJP leaders to return to the party fold and accordingly he is rejoining the BJP with which he was associated for over two decades earlier.

Recalling that he had served the BJP in various capacities, he said that he remained inactive after the Lok Sabha poll defeat and now he is returning to the BJP to be politically active. Asserting that he has been invited by several top BJP leaders of the State including Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa and State BJP Chief Nalin Kumar Kateel, he reiterated that he is returning to the BJP in order to retain his political identity.

Expressing his gratitude to Opposition leader and former CM Siddharamaiah for showing affection to him, Vijayashankar maintained that changing political sides does not mean that he has lost respect for Siddharamaiah.

Vijayashankar was a BJP MLA from Hunsur in the 90s and his return to the party fold at a time when the bypolls to Hunsur Assembly segment is being held on Dec.5, is expected to give a big boost to the party. Sources said that Vijayashankar may also be fielded as BJP candidate for the bypolls as he has a strong following in Hunsur Assembly segment.

WORD OF THE DAY

Deke

Pronunciation: DEEK.
Meaning: To fake an opponent out of position (as in ice hockey).

Origin: Deke originated as a shortened form of decoy. American writer Ernest Hemingway used deke as a noun referring to hunting decoys in a number of his works, including his 1950 novel Across the River and into the Trees ("I offered to put the dekes out with him"). In the 1940s, deke began appearing in ice-hockey contexts in Canadian print sources in reference to the act of faking an opponent out of position—much like how decoy is used for luring one into a trap. Today, deke has scored in many other sports, including baseball, basketball, soccer, and football. It has also occasionally checked its way into more general usage to refer to deceptive or evasive moves or actions.
Example: "After taking a pass from Diego Rossi and avoiding a sliding defender, Vela stepped around another defender inside the box, deked keeper Daniel Vega to the ground then dribbled around him...." — Kevin Baxter.

THE ODD WORD

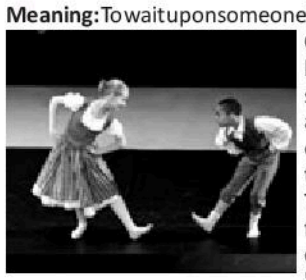
Dacryops

Wateriness of the eyes.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Dance attendance on

Meaning: To wait upon someone in an overly assiduous or sycophantic manner.



Origin: The derivation of this phrase isn't known. It probably has the same root source as kick one's heels, although that is a later phrase. Both phrases refer to someone shuffling and tapping their feet impatiently while waiting to be summoned.
The first citation of 'dance attendance' is from John Skelton's Why come ye nat to courte?, circa 1522:
"And Syr ye must daunce attendance, And take patient sufferaunce, For my Lords Grace, Hath now no time or space, To speke with you as yet."
Shakespeare later used it in King Henry VI, Part I, 1592:
YORK:
I'll tell thee, Suffolk, why I am unmeet:
First, for I cannot flatter thee in pride;
Next, if I be appointed for the place,
My Lord of Somerset will keep me here,
Without discharge, money, or furniture,
Till France be won into the Dauphin's hands:
Last time, I danced attendance on his will
Till Paris was besieged, famish'd, and lost.

QUOTE BOX

If you hit a wall, climb over it, crawl under it, or dance on top of it.
